

Wisconsin has done an outstanding job in the creation of the do not call list. Please allow the state to continue to govern its own policies in respect to the list. I believe we all benefit & enjoy the strict codes the telemarketers have to abide by. The last thing I want to happen is more annoying phone calls disrupting my day.